

PRODUCTION

When should I plan to go into production in Victoria?

The situation around coronavirus (COVID-19) is rapidly evolving and as such, we are unable to provide advice on this matter. Business Victoria's Hotline is available to provide advice and assistance on the potential impacts and financial, insurance and legal measures you should have in mind when making plans that may need to be altered in future. Please contact Business Victoria on 13 22 15 or business.vic.gov.au.

What is Film Victoria doing with production funding to respond to the challenges created by COVID-19?

Film Victoria is proceeding as normal with the current production funding round to ensure projects are fully financed and ready to go into production as soon as possible.

Film Victoria intends to expand its development programs during the current production hiatus.

I am an employee of a screen business or screen production, can you give me some advice on my employment?

Unfortunately, we are unable to advise you on employment matters, however you can contact the Media Entertainment Arts & Alliance for advice and information here: <https://www.meaa.org/>.

Can you advise me on what kind of OH&S measures I need to put in place?

We are unable to provide direct advice, however contact Screen Producers Australia who will be able to provide advice on this matter here: <https://www.screenproducers.org.au/>. The Business Victoria Hotline is available to provide advice to businesses to help them work safely at this time. Please contact Business Victoria on 13 22 15 or business.vic.gov.au.
